New Town Reservoir Now Filled

The Town's new dam at the Hancock coulee is now full and work is progressing on the pump tank intake. Some very large concrete pipes are being put down into the ground and the pump will be mounted over these from where the water will be pumped into the main line.

Work is commencing now on the line from this station to the main line on Broadway and every effort will be made to get the line finished and all connections made before the weather turns cold. This additional supply and new line will not only add to the available water, but should also make a big improvement in the taste as this supply can be kept fresh with the constant inflow of the river water through the canal feeding it.

DON'T FORGET

the Luncheon and Meeting of the Victory Loan Committee and Salesmen and Rotarians and Lions on Monday next at 7:30 in the 2nd Ward. T. H. Caudwell, Southern Alberta Organizer will be present at the meeting.

NEWS NOTES

Gordon Brewerton of Cardston was a Raymond visitor Thursday.

Born to Mr and Mrs Henry Elhart a baby boy at the local hospital. Mother and son are doing nicely.

Mr and Mrs. L. D. King returned home Monday after three weeks visiting in Utah with relatives and friends.

Raymond's Big Annual Carnival is scheduled for the early part of November and Committees are now working out the details of the big affair. Watch for definite dates and announcements of the big prizes.

It is more than likely that by the time this appears in print, coal miners in Alberta and Eastern B.C. will have gone back to their work. Protesting against meat rationing they took a holiday stating the ration was not sufficient for working men. Modifications have been made in the coupon values of meats and mines are again operating and not before many unheeding Albertans found their coal supply getting dangerously low.

Implement Warehouse Going Up

After several months delay waiting for his construction permit, Scott W. Salmon, local Massey Harris agent, is proceeding now with the laying of the corner brick for his new implement warehouse, with Jos. P. Strong doing the masonry work. Scott is building a cinder brick warehouse and office, 50x60 feet on his business lot just east of the Hungarian Hall. It will be 13 feet high in front and 11 feet high in the rear and will contain a large work shop at the rear, with a large stock room for parts and so on in the centre and an office at the front. Four good-sized windows are being put in the front and suitable and sufficient along the sides for good lighting.

With the new building Scott hopes to be able to improve and enlarge his services to his clientele which has been steadily growing for some time past. We congratulate Scott on his enterprise and the new building will make a fine addition to Raymond's business blocks.

LIONS HOLD REGULAR MEETING

The meeting opened in the usual manner by singing "Oh Canada" and Invocation by Lion Rudon Dahl. Community singing was enjoyed by all with Lion Joe McLean handling the Baton.

Lion Joe Stong then took charge of the program and introduced Lion Joe McLean, Nephew Christian and John Howard who entertained the club members with a few vocal solos, trios and instrumentals on the Banjos. This was great. Come again boys.

Lion Paul Evans then related some of his experiences while a prisoner of War in Germany.

Lion L. L. Harker and G. Evans were appointed to represent the Lions Club at the Flying Meeting which is being held in town.

This Club decided to Donate the sum of $3.00 asked for by the Clothing Committee to defray some of the advertising expenses.

It was left to the Executive to decide where the future meetings are to be held.

The members were all in favor of holding another Carnival this fall. The meeting closed by singing "Gor Save the King".

HORSE PROCESSING PLANT TO OPEN SOON

The Horse Co-operative Marketing Association hope to have their Swift Current, Saskatchewan, plant in operation about October 1st. The test run will be for the purpose of determining the quantity of meat and by-products to be derived from all types of horses. Because initial payments to the producer are based on fleshy condition, the basis of live grading will be determined by the meat recovery on the test run. The initial payment to producers will be 2¢ per lb. live weight for well-fleshed horses with further payments in the form of patronage dividends.

Many thousands of horses have been listed with the Co-operative in the last few weeks. Listings have come from nearly every town in Saskatchewan and from many in Southern Alberta.

The purpose of listing horses with the Horse Co-operative Marketing Association is twofold. Because there are over 200,000 surplus horses in Saskatchewan alone, it is necessary to have some sort of quota basis for shipments to the plants at Swift Current, Sask., and Edmonton, Alta. In this way all producers have an equal chance to dispose of their horses and the drought areas can be given some preference in the face of the serious feed situation. The other purpose of listing is that producers who assist in enabling the Co-operative to raise its financial objective of $100,000 and sell the loan capital can be given priority in shipments. This is being achieved by producers buying one share in the Co-op at $1.00 for every head of horses they wish to list for sale to the Co-op. This then enables the Horse Co-operative Marketing to pay

SUGAR STOCKS LOWER DISTRIBUTION SUFFERS

With eight months of the year gone, the sugar situation is becoming more acute. Beet sugar stocks at Wallaceburg, normally a high production area, are about 1/3 as of and have resulted in the recent importation of 2,000,000 pounds of cane sugar. Officials point out that the was made necessary in order the processors and houses might receive even their limited rations.

From New York, come reports that quota users are suffering delays in getting their allotments, while another adds that a "sugar cartel" has become known as a "thin red line" only.

Other reports show that beet sugar is being shipped from Eastern States to fortify declining cane sugar stock piles. Normally, beet sugar does not appear in the open sugar markets because of prohibitive freight rates. The additional cost to ship this western beet sugar will be absorbed by the Canadian Credit Corporation.

The bride tottered up the aisle on the arm of her father, who was wheeled in his armchair by three of his grandchildren. She was arrayed in white and carried a large bouquet of white roses; her hair though gray, was bobbed and she smiled and nodded to acquaintances.

The groom was able to walk, aided by two handsome mahogany crutches. His head was bald, and his false teeth chattered a little nervously.

And so they were married—the couple who waited until they could afford to get married.

A want ad will tell it—sell it—trade it—or rent it. Try it!

off the $50,000 loan guaranteed by the province and put all the assets in the hands of the producer members. The Co-op is a non-profit organization and only those who ship horses through the plan will get the benefit of patronage dividends.

"Anyone who has not already listed their surplus horses are urged to do so now," says Mr. Elliott.

HOW CROP ROTATION CAN

(Experimental Farms News)

There is a common belief that the rotating of crops is not profitable on the Canadian prairies although considered essential in Eastern Canada and Europe. Investigations at the Brandon Experimental Farm and on Dominion Substations in Manitoba has definitely proved that the alternating of mixtures of grasses and legumes with grain crops and prairie summerfallow is more profitable than alternating grain and summerfallow, says M. J. Tulloh, Superintendent at the Brandon Farm.

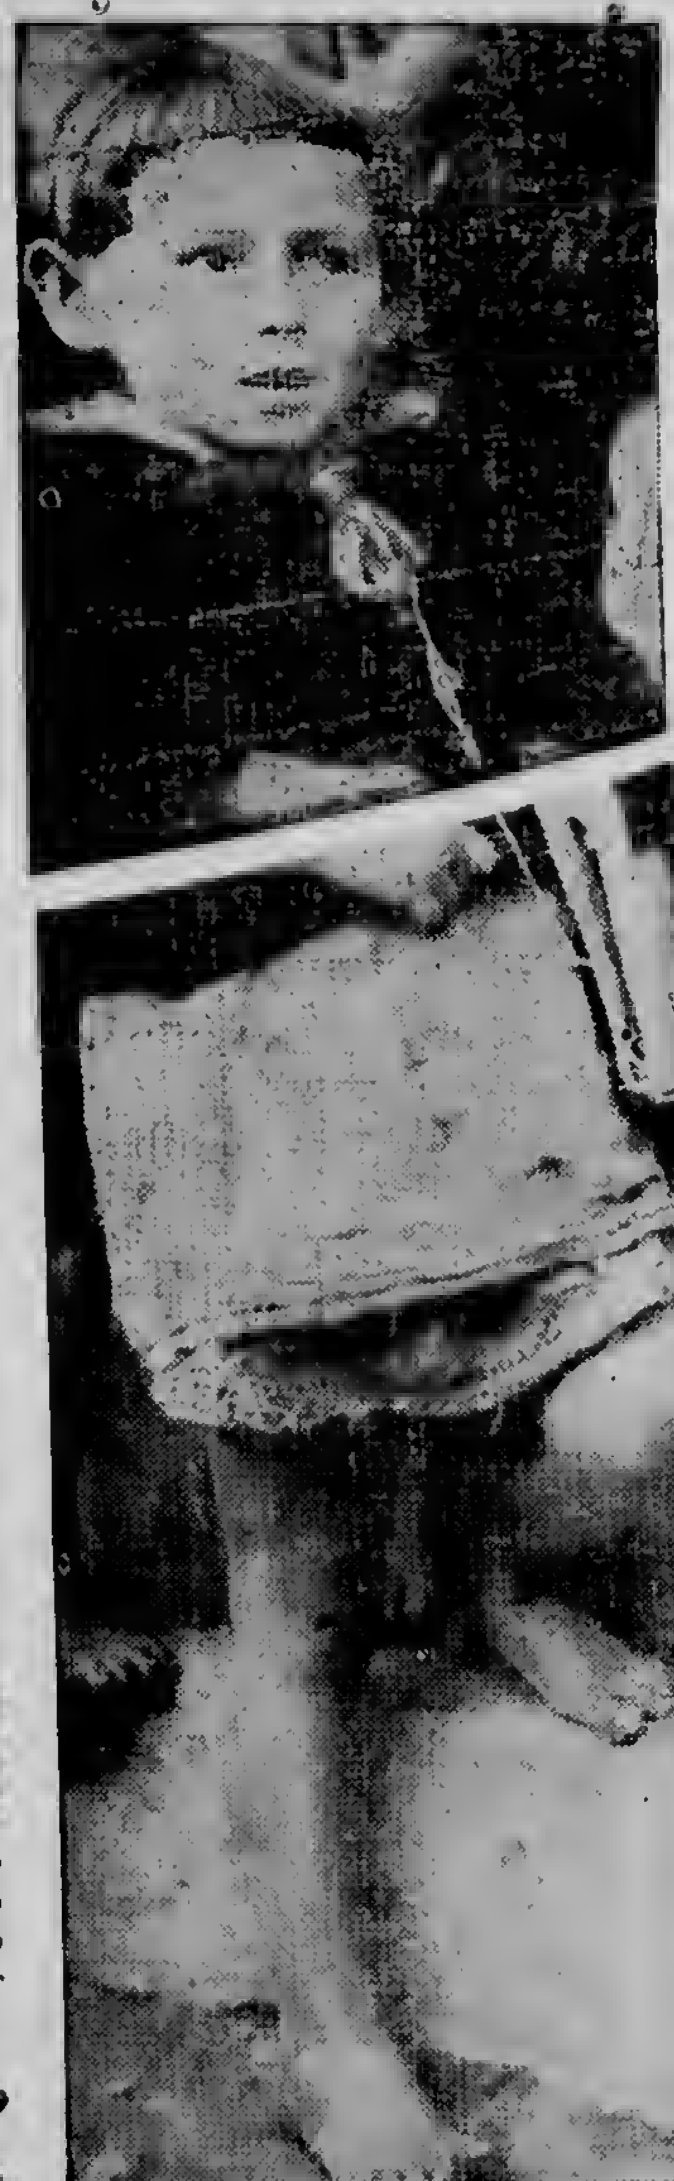

In the first place weeds can be controlled with much less cultivation where the land is in sod for two years out of three or eight than where only grain is grown. The growing of the two crops reduces labor in seeding, and therefore the harvest season because the hay can be removed in July and the grain in August and September; also the period for preparing the land for crop is extended. Sod land can be broken in early June, thus resorting to the practice so profitable to the pioneer settlers. Cultivation of the sod land can often be done when wet weather makes the working of ordinary fine textured summerfallow difficult.

Farm planning is greatly simplified once a good rotation is established. However, changing from grain growing to systematic cropping creates a number of problems that have to be solved. The staff at the Brandon Experimental Farm will be prepared during the coming winter to plan rotations for farmers who need the necessary details regarding their farms.

The miracle growth of Jack's beanstalk had nothing on the way money grew between Canada and China this last month. When the students of McGill University raised $5,000 and sent it to the brave unconquerable students in China, they didn't dream they were handling golden mushrooms. But such was the case.

By the time the five thousand dollars reached them it had grown into $800,000. From there on—the story isn't so good. Because, not only had money grown in China but food and clothing prices had gone haywire also.

One egg would cost a young student there exactly $7.

One pound of sugar would cost $1.80.

One bar of common soap $5.

One bushel of rice $500.

One foot of cotton that used to sell for 8c. would cost $24.

One pound of pork to cook with cabbage and a small handful of rice would cost $65.

So, although the generous and kindly gift from the students of Montreal looked so big from where we sit, it really wouldn't buy them many of the comforts and pleasures of life.

WE'LL HAVE THE MONEY to pay the BILLS

LIKE thousands of other Canadians, farmers will welcome the 9th Victory Loan as another opportunity to save money to provide for future plans.

Victory Loans have provided an excellent means of helping the war effort, at the same time contributing to our own personal welfare.

Canada needs more money now . . . to make loans to foreign countries so that they can establish credits which will enable them to buy food and other things which they require.

This food will come from Canadian farms; these goods from Canadian factories. When we help to create markets for our farm produce abroad . . . and when we help to keep Canadian factories busy . . . we help to maintain good prices for the things that Canadian farms produce.

Victory Bonds also provide a reserve fund of working capital for our own use . . . so handy to have so many times. Any bank will buy Victory Bonds at any time, or loan money on Victory Bonds if we need cash.

. . . and for our future plans, we'll have the money required for things we want to do . . .

Get ready to buy more Victory Bonds this Fall. Buy double this time—the same rate of savings as in previous loans will pay for twice as many bonds over the 12 month period.

Farmers Can Buy Victory Bonds On Convenient Deferred Payments Through Any Bank
